

Osterlinds Get Lost Looking For Indians, Miss Collision

By ALICE PERKIN

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Osterlind went out looking for Indians recently, and although they didn't find any, they could have used an Indian guide.

On a 10-day trip to Sequoia National Forest, the couple started out one day for an Indian reservation, but made a wrong turn and got on a logging trail. They narrowly missed a collision when a huge logging truck came barreling toward them.

They stayed at a cabin up above California Hot Springs, enjoying outdoor swimming and fishing.

Carla Osterlind left last Thursday morning to stay at Girl Scout Camp Osita Rancho. The camp is run by the Los Angeles Council and is located above Big Bear. Carla's 12-day stay will be spent sleeping and eating outdoors, and swimming.

Mrs. Osterlind explained that this particular camp allows the girls to do most of the work but that their meals are prepared for them by a paid staff.

Falling happily under the magic spell cast by a real Hawaiian Luau were the Robert Kelseys, of 808 Cerise Ave. The affair was held at the Allen Center on Terminal Island.

As guests of the Robert Kelseys, of Long Beach, the Kelseys watched the knife dances, graceful hula dancers, and a beautiful water ballet as they enjoyed the traditional smoked fish, roasted pig, complete with apple in mouth, baked fruit and barbecued ribs.

Accent Theatre held an informal dancing party at the Torrance Women's Club that was attended by many.

The group was entertained with mixer dances and even instructed, as Jack Hudson—a former Arthur Murray dancing teacher—taught everyone to Tango. Doughnuts and coffee were served. Mrs. Beverly Dyer was in charge of the affair.

Those enjoying the Friday night dance were Messrs. and Mrs. Robert Beecher, Paul Harestad, Kenneth Perkin, Robert Kelsey, Lou Dyer, William Boswell and Frank Kelly from this area.

Mr. and Mrs. Woody Stroman, of 1014 Felbar, happily announce the arrival of their fourth child. Their new son, which they have named Gregory, was born Sunday night at Torrance Memorial Hospital and weighed eight lbs., nine ozs. at birth. He joins his sister Betty Jane, 14; Jackie, 3; and brother Wyatt, 9.

Mark and Deloras Freeman, of 2817 Sonoma, have been in Tulsa, Okla., visiting their family.

The Brownies spent a wonderful day last Wednesday at Buffalo Ranch, down around Corona Del Mar. Mrs. Barbara Hardinghouse, of 808 Fonthill, along with three other friends, drove the girls down.

The day was spent riding burros, feeding the buffalo and learning to speak a little Cherokee Indian.

Among the 11 girls who went were Julie Bishop, Judy Bradford, Dianne Caldwell, Shannon Jansak, Lorraine Keltz, Joanne McDade, Pat Meyers, Andrea Nohr, Cindy Wicker and Susette and Patty Hardinghouse. The adults helping the little girls to enjoy their day were Mrs. Mildred McDade, Mrs. Pat Caldwell, Mrs. Catherine Wicker and Mrs. Barbara Hardinghouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kelsey, of 808 Cerise, entertained at an impromptu cocktail party Friday night. Their guests enjoyed the new addition to the Kelsey family... a hi-fidelity set.

Those dancing and enjoying the music were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Harestad, of 2849 Onrado. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Perkin, of 2830 Eldorado and Mrs. and Mrs. Warner Suprier, of Manhattan Beach.

Georgianne Baker, of 2821 Onrado, is spending a week at Camp LaVerne, up near Jenks Lake, east of Big Bear. She is accompanied by Charlotte and Brenda Dickson, of 2751 Onrado. Both sets of parents visited the girls Sunday and reported that they were having a grand time.

Always an expert bridge player, Mrs. Helen Crooker, of 808 Cranbrook, proved adept again as she and Dr. and Mrs. William Fluhr won the prize in the Westchester Bridge tournament.

Helen is playing next in the Biltmore tournament held in August. Her regular Westchester Bridge club plays two tables ordinarily but they let their husbands join in the fun about four times a year on various holidays.

The social Klunkings, of 2829 Onrado, rounded off a relaxing day at the beach Sunday by gathering up their family and

Joining the Rodney Clarks in an outdoor barbecue. After enjoying the barbecued spareribs, smoked potatoes, green salad and chocolate cake the couples danced to the Clark's tremendous selection of records. Also attending the party were the Kenneth Perkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Porter, of 1017 Kornblum, and their children, Mike, 7, Scotty, 4, and Debbie, 1½, visited Mrs. Porter's mother, Mrs. S. L. Nesbitt, in Pomona for a week. The family spent the week enjoying picnics, swimming, seeing Davy Crockett in the movies, and visiting cousins.

Speaking of movies, the Allen Pycatts, of 804 Cerise, saw one in the making last Monday.

They took their houseguests, Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Daniel to the Allied Artists Studio to see a mutual friend of theirs, Nancy Gates. Miss Gates is taking the friend, lead in a space movie, entitled "5000 Years from Now."

After a late brunch at the Brown Derby, the two couples were admitted to the set to witness some of the scenes being shot for the picture.

Mr. and Mrs. John McVay, of 920 Kornblum, are entertaining house guests from Fennell, Wash. . . . the Bernard Harwoods and daughters, Clair and Andrea. The McVays are planning trips to Disneyland and Marineland, along with a dinner party, designed to make their stay more enjoyable. The Harwoods are formerly of Torrance and moved to Washington a few years ago with the new General Petroleum plant where Harwood is employed.

More house guests on busy Kornblum St. The Charles Briners, of 1008 Kornblum, are enjoying a visit from the Lloyd Blanks and their daughter, Jean, from Allentown, Pa.

Besides showing the Blanks around, Mr. and Mrs. Briner are helping their guests to find living quarters, as they plan to make Southern California their home. The Blanks are not newcomers however. They lived in Long Beach 15 years ago.

Dr. and Mrs. Allen Pycatt, of 804 Cerise, held a gala cocktail party in honor of their house guests, Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Daniel. The reception was held from 6 to 8 and enjoyed by over 35 guests. Those from our area attending were Messrs. and Mrs. Frank Kelly, Paul Harestad, Robert Kelsey, Richard Beecher, William Boswell, Robert Kelsey and Reid Bundy. Afterwards the Pycatts and the Daniels had dinner at a Torrance restaurant.

Visiting this week in Monrovia with their parents, the James Daniels, were Mr. and Mrs. John P. Schwartz, of 829 Cerise, and their little 5-week-old baby daughter, Lisa Ann. Leaving last Monday, the family spent most of their time around the Daniels' swimming pool. They enjoyed one exciting night seeing "Kismet," a musical playing at the Philharmonic, in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Cantle, of 1809 Florwood, have just returned from an extended vacation in Ensenada. Enjoying the holiday with the Cantles were the Charles Orllins, of San Pedro; the Mel Sagenkahns, Dr. and Mrs. B. M. Wienger, of Los Angeles; and the Irwin Steinharts. The couples stayed at the Quintas Papagayo, motel and spent most of their time relaxing around the pool.

Upon the Cantles return they decided that they were not yet done with outdoor fun. Along with the Sagenkahns they picnicked at Torrance Park.

Center Lane Slow Driver Found Guilty

The driver who creeps along blocking the fast moving traffic lane has suffered another setback.

California Highway Patrol Commissioner B. R. Caldwell has cited a recently concluded jury trial to emphasize the necessity for slower moving vehicles to travel in the right hand lane or as close to the right edge of the roadway as is practicable.

A motorist in violation of this vehicle code provision was cited into court by a California Highway Patrol officer for traveling at speeds of from 10 to 45 miles per hour in the inside traffic lane on San Francisco's heavily traveled Bayshore Freeway.

The violator demanded a jury trial, was found guilty, and was assessed a $50 fine.

STUDENT DRIVERS

More than 10,000 high schools in the U. S. now provide behind-the-wheel courses of instruction. In some schools the course is compulsory.
